Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 925 entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 501 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by changing fees for hunters' licenses and tags for antlerless deer and compensation for issuing same and providing for issuance by county treasurers only and authorizing licenses and tags for groups of counties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have somebody explain the bill and the purpose of the bill.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, earlier in this session we passed a bill setting up a new way for the Pennsylvania Game Commission to declare an open season on antlerless deer.

We have discovered now that the administration of the thing could not be worked out the way it was handled this year. In this particular bill we are proposing in the future all the licenses shall be issued in the county where the open season is to be held; rather than sixty percent in that county and forty percent by the Department of Revenue.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Goodling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOODLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. According to your description of the bill all doe licenses would be given to the various counties that would have open season on doe, is that correct?

Mr. GOODLING. That is correct.

Mr. FILO. Under this provision what chances—let us take the gentleman's county for instance—if they have open doe season in his county, you have 8,000 licenses in your county, can the gentleman assure me that hunters from Allegheny County would be eligible for the doe license in his county.

Mr. GOODLING. I cannot assure the gentleman of that, Mr. Speaker, but I can tell him this: the people in his county would have the same privilege as the people in my county would have.

If I may add a word to that, Mr. Speaker, we are raising the issuing fee from ten to fifteen cents and stating that the County Treasurer must mail out the licenses.

Mr. FILO. I am not arguing about the fee, I am just wondering, with between 80,000 and 100,000 hunters in Allegheny County, what chances they would have of obtaining a doe license in the county of Mr. Goodling?

I can see a point here whereby hunters from Allegheny County would be shut out entirely from hunting in his county. If doe licenses were administered in his county, say approximately 5,000, how could he guarantee that any one of the hunters from Allegheny County who have no place to hunt could hunt in his county?

With this bill the hunters in his county could buy up all the doe licenses and the hunters in Allegheny County, who are paying hundreds of thousands of dollars as sportsmen, would not be able to hunt in his county. That is not only true of his county, but that is true of any county in the state of Pennsylvania.

I feel that this is an unjust bill. If under the provisions of this bill there would be a guarantee of a certain amount of licenses to be issued to hunters from various other counties, the bill would be a good bill. I cannot see the bill as it is in its present form.

I know it has been done, and it will be done, that hunters going out, some hunters in some counties do not like to have doe season. Therefore, they would buy up the excess doe licenses and prevent a hunter from a county like my county, Allegheny, and probably from Philadelphia, from hunting in that district.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, I might say that this is strictly a privilege. I can cite you precedents where this occurs all over the United States. Hunting doe is a privilege. I might add further that it is impossible for any one county to buy up the licenses in a county, unless they have sufficient resident hunting licenses. You must first of all have a resident hunting license.

We will grant you this is not a perfect bill by any means. We are willing to take our chance and say that this is far better than any other way that has been tried before by the Pennsylvania Game Commission to control the deer herd.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, in my humble opinion I think this is a very unfair bill. I would say that the hunters in Western Pennsylvania, particularly in Allegheny County who pay maybe ten, fifteen, twenty times more hunting revenue of the State, would be deprived of a right to hunt in a certain county.

I think the way this bill is written up in its present form it is unjust and inequitable.

Mr. Speaker, will it be all right to pass this bill over for a few minutes?

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Messrs. SCHMIDT and SEYLER offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 20, 1951.

Resolved, That the Committee on Education be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 375, entitled "An act to amend clause (b) of Section 1 of the act approved the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1183) entitled 'An act relating to strikes by public employes; prohibiting such strikes; providing that such employes by striking terminate their employment; providing for reinstatement under certain conditions; providing for a grievance procedure and providing for hearings before civil service and tenure authorities and in certain cases before the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board' by changing method of selecting panels for the adjustment of grievances of school district, certain employes and imposing additional duties on such panels," said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on May 14, 1951.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, on May 14, 1951, now seven months past, there was placed in the hands of the Committee on Education of this House, Senate Bill 375 which had passed that body by a vote of 42 to 7.

At the session in 1947 an anti-strike bill was passed in this Commonwealth preventing employes of municipal corporations from engaging in strikes in order to settle their labor disputes. As a part of that bill there was incorporated an arbitration clause. This arbitration clause as applied to employes of the school systems of Pennsylvania required where a labor dispute occurred, it was to be submitted to a board of arbitration composed of a representative of the employe, a representative of the school board and the third member to be a representative of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of this Commonwealth.

As you readily can see any employe or group of employes, when it came to arbitration, had a stacked board, in plain language, for two representatives of education appeared on this board against one representative of the employe.

This Senate bill desires to change this inequity and provides that non-professional employes, that is maintenance employes, not teachers, when a labor dispute occurs, the board of arbitration shall be composed of a representative of the employe, a representative of the school board and a third impartial representative to be selected by the two.

This is in line with all accepted theory of arbitration today in labor management-relationship; that the third member shall be one who has no interest whatsoever in the outcome of the dispute and who can fairly and impartially be the deciding vote between the contending parties, particularly where we have by law required that no strike shall take place we can justify this change in the present law.

I, therefore, ask that the Committee of Education which has this bill in its hands and which refused to discharge same so that you may vote upon it be required to bring this bill to the floor of the House.

On the question recurring

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we will accept a party vote on the resolution to discharge.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Andrews, and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GUARNIERI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, at this time of the year we are all inspired by the good cheer of Christmas, and I was inspired to write a few lines the other evening and I would like to read these lines to the House and have them upon the record. It is entitled "The Week Before Christmas."

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the Members will be very much interested in hearing the message of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarinieri, at this time. The Chair asks the indulgence of the Members.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, with the kind indulgence of the Chair and the Members I would like to read these few humble lines. I hope I can cheer you up, but if I do not, this is only in good spirit anyway.

'Twas the Week Before Christmas

'Twas the week before Christmas—the House was still in session.

The year was fifty-one—still lingered there one question:

When shall this House adjourn forever and a day?
Shall it be the 22nd, or shall it be next May?

Eleven months of legislating—of the year this the twelfth

Arduous and taxing are the problems of the Commonwealth.

Taxation was one stumbling block, but others there were too

FEPC had its day and with Mr. Pechan's bill there was much ado!

Our legal brothers had their bills to change this law and that . . .

More judges needed for the courts, judicial pay inadequate . . .

Jurisdiction, subrogation, sci fa and fi fa writs . . .
Oh, such nice technicalities for the legal wits!

'Twas the week before Christmas, when the land was all white

And the beauteous slumber of snowfall had stilled the quiet night . . .

Yet the hearts and minds of lawmakers were very much alerted

Over fair Philadelphia's problems which could not be diverted—

Consolidation and merger, city and county plans, Congressional reapportionment and wage tax demands!

While Senatorial decorum was put to the test to maintain its dignity and yet cut the Gordian knots . . .
The gentlemen of the House were thankful for their happier lot.

And now that Christmas joy has fused diverse mind and heart

And the Members on each side of the House unite in Yuletide cheer . . .

May we not all return to home and hearth and joyfully say to each other,

"Glory to God in the Highest; on Earth, Peace" and to all our Members, "Goodwill."

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. FILO asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. FILO, SCANLON, SARRAF and DuBOIS offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted by a rising vote as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 20, 1951.

Once again the House pauses to reflect on the transitory nature of our temporal order. In the midst of human struggle and turmoil and of legislative wrangling and jockeying the peremptory call of death brings to an end the earthly career of the Honorable William J. Yester.

He was an esteemed representative from the ninth district in Allegheny County for five successive terms. As a Democrat, he was an exemplar of party solidarity and virtue and was always in the forefront of civic progress and reform.

His fraternal affiliations were many and enthusiastic. Among them were the Elks, the Eagles, the Knights of Columbus, the Kiwanis, the A.O.A., and the L.O.O.M.—and among these fraternal groups his presence was tangible and helpful.

Professionally, Mr. Yester was an optometrist, who carried on his duties effectively despite the many encroachments upon his time by political considerations.

The sudden death of Mr. Yester has taken from McKeesport a truly outstanding civic leader; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives express its deep regret at the loss of one of its revered colleagues and its sympathy with the greater loss sustained by the citizens of McKeesport in the abrupt departure of one of its most conscientious and effective spokesmen and leaders; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution with its messages of condolence be transmitted to his surviving widow, Mrs. William J. Yester, 1717 Jenny Lind Street, McKeesport.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FILO. I just want to make a short statement regarding the bill we had pertaining to doe season in the state which was an experiment. I think this bill right at the present time is an experiment. The only objection I have to it, and I want to make sure that when those Members from my county and probably other counties like Allegheny send their applications in they be given in return the licenses on a first come first serve basis. I want the Members on this side of the House not to go by my actions and my vote. I am still going to vote "no" on the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GUARNIERI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Some lines dedicated to the members of the House of Representatives. During the various debates on the amendments to the Pechan Loyalty Oath Bill, S-27, there was much discussion of that provision of the Bill providing for a "trial de novo," and it resulted that the words "de novo" assumed especial significance as a guarantee of the rights of the accused. Yet, the words did provoke some humorous reactions, as well, to lighten the burdens of the members of the House.

These lines are written not in belittlement of the seriousness of the issues involved nor of the sincerity of the members of the House to find some adequate safeguards for the rights of the individual. These are offered in a spirit of good-fellowship during the closing hours of the present session.

"De Novo"

What is de novo? Who is de novo? Whence does "de novo" come?

What means "de novo"? Where is "de novo"?

Anon—anon—anon!

Such little words—and yet so BIG—

Just three syllables in it all!

Five letters of the alphabet did confound this Hall!

It's spelled "d-e," but sounds like "day"— the "novo" is there, no less!

Oh, Lexicon, Oh, Lexicon, they do our minds arrest!
The ablatives, the genitives, the datives gang astray—or, is it in the nominative? does the "novo" follow
"de?"

Proud salons in the Hall of the House did long deliberate and many hours were consumed, its meaning to elucidate.

For standing alone, if alone they could, the "novo" and the "de," they might cause trouble enough, But add thereon a third word—"trial," and then the going's tough!

"Trial de novo" means just that, and that and nothing more!

It means "anew"—"all over again"—"da capo" in the musical score.

"Da capo" explains it—it means "from the head," and "head" means Beginnin'!

So let us start all over again and explain once more its meanin'.

But, wait! Methinks I hear a voice - - -

It cries out "Supersedeas!"

—"Withhold your judgment for awhile—less you be repetitious."

—"I am those words so misunderstood . . . .

"I'm not "da capo" nor "beginnin'!"

I am what I am as I am

and so long as time shall bear me in mind

"De Novo"—and nothing more—it my meanin'.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, the gentleman from Berks, DOCTOR RUTH, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and merciful God, this morning as we are drawing toward the close of this Session, we come to Thee, our hearts filled with gratitude that Thy wisdom has enabled us to do as much as we did do. We know that of our own wisdom and ingenuity we cannot do much, but only as we permit ourselves to be guided by Thy thought, by Thy love, can we do the things that are necessary for the welfare of those whom we represent.

We thank Thee for the friendships we have made during this Session. We ask Thee to go with us into our homes, that what we have learned during this year we may apply to our lives for better living in our several communities.

We pray Thy continued blessings upon our State that we may go forward, always standing forth as a beacon light, welcoming those from other lands and from other states to come here and live the life of freedom and the life of plenty, all which we owe to those of our forefathers who came here and out of this wilderness have built this haven. #### BILL ON THIRD READING, AMENDMENTS OFFERED, DEFEATED ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill. No. 708, entitled:

An Act requiring certain non-profit and cooperative associations and corporations to obtain the approval of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission before beginning to furnish telephone service on a cooperative or non-profit basis or to furnish such service in areas not heretofore served providing for regulation of such service after approval and conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission

And said bill having been read at length the third time, On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I offer an amendment on behalf of Mr. PEELOR and Mr. YOSKO and myself.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 2, page 3, line 6, by inserting after the word "Law" the following "Nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to telephone service furnished by the Rural Electrification Administration."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, this bill was before us once before and was recommitted to the Committee on Corporations. When it came before us on June 20, I wrote to the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Electrification Administration, and asked them for their comments on the merits of the bill, and I received this reply which I will read in support of the amendments. The letter is addressed to me and it is dated June 28, 1951. It reads as follows:

"This is in reply to your letter bringing to our attention H. B. 708 and requesting our comments thereon.

"H. B. 708 would, in effect, repeal Section 1102 (17) of Title 66, Purdon's Pa. Stats. Ann., which exempts from Commission jurisdiction any bona fide cooperative association which furnishes services only to its stockholders or members on a non-profit basis'. The bill, we are informed, has been opposed by the Pennsylvania State Association of Rural Electric Cooperatives which interprets the measure as a move to hamper the extension of rural telephone service through cooperative effort. It is our one view that the bill would contribute nothing towards the expansion and improvement of rural telephone service in your State, and will only make it more difficult for farm groups to obtain for themselves through their cooperative efforts, telephone service which they are unable to obtain elsewhere.

"You may find the attached statement on this matter of Commission jurisdiction over cooperatives of interest.

"We appreciate your communicating with us, and regret that we were unable to respond earlier."

This letter is signed by Charles U. Samenow, Consultant.

Mr. President, I ask the Members of the Senate to vote for the amendment which would exempt the R. E. A. from the provisions of the bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, ever since July when we recommitted this bill I have been in contact with quite a number of the rural telephone companies operating in western Pennsylvania on a cooperative basis, and from the information I have received they tell me that first and foremost most of these small telephone companies operate in the red. Their idea is to give the people in the rural communities some semblance of communication. Now, they are subsidized or they receive money from the R. E. A. in order to expand their facilities. I understand that this bill does not apply to those that are already in operation, but it is going to hamstring them in the event we pass this legislation, because the large telephone companies, and I am speaking of the Bell Telephone Company in particular, the large telephone companies in western Pennsylvania will not expand their facilities unless there are a certain number of subscribers who are willing to sign up for telephone service.

In addition to that, Mr. President, the subscribers themselves are allocated a certain cost of the construction or the erection of the lines. For example, in my own community I am now paying sixteen dollars a month for the privilege of having a Bell telephone in my home. Now, it is a natural necessity that I have that telephone but the farmers must have some sort of communication and a lot of them cannot afford to pay a price such as that. I know, for example, a small telephone cooperative up in Brave, in Greene County; they operate in the red, but they are trying to expand the facilities and they must have R. E. A. support, and so, if we adopt this amendment, we will be doing the rural folk a favor. If we do not adopt this amendment and we pass this bill, we are voting in favor of monopoly and we are depriving those people of a service which they deserve and which they should have.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, this bill, House Bill No. 708, was before us in July of this year. There it has resposd in committee until suddenly, as of the day before yesterday, this bill appears. Mr. President, I want to acquaint the gentlemen of the Senate with the situation, and I will be as brief as I possibly can.

Mr. President, about 1937, the farmers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania were deprived of electric energy for several reasons. In some districts because the companies were not disposed to go in and render service, and in other counties they did not care to accept it at an extremely high price to the farmer. As of the time, there are thirteen cooperative R. E. A. in this State. They serve between sixty and seventy thousand farmers. The electric energy is purchased from the power companies. They do not generate their own power.

Mr. President, in this particular bill, Senator Lane's amendment is to permit rural electrification to extend to the farmer the telephone service which he has been unable to get. The long line service, of course, will be handled by the Bell Telephone Company as in the past. I want to suggest to you, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, that if you do not permit this amendment to go through, you are injuring the farmers of this Commonwealth. As Senator Lane has said, you are giving a monopoly to the telephone companies, and I would ask my colleagues from this side of the house to vote "yes" on the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Clerk will call the roll. (During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I just recalled the speech I made on this amendment last July when it was before us. So, I have convinced myself that I should now vote "no" on the amendment because of that famous speech that I made, which at that time seemed to fall on deaf ears.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The vote on the question: ayes 17, nays 19, and the amendments fall.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LANE and Mr. PEELOR and were as follows, viz:

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, it has been clearly demonstrated here today that the Members of this Senate are not concerned with the problems of the farmers in the rural communities. They have voted to hamstring them, and it seems to me that these farmers who generally vote Republican should be informed of the position which has been taken here today. I counted the votes that came over. I noticed that some on my side, from the metropolitan areas, are not concerned with the rural communities, and it is just about time that we Members of the Senate, on both sides of the house, get together on problems that will protect our people.

Mr. President, we voted here today for a monopoly in public utilities. We voted here today to deprive the country people of proper communication, and I say to you if we continue along these lines, the people are going to lose confidence in government. There is nothing wrong with those amendments, not a thing, and they were bipartisan amendments, and I say here and now that the Members of this Senate who voted down these amendments are going to live to see the day they regret their action.

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, during the last month there have been times when we have spent week after week dealing with problems concerning the metropolitan areas in Pennsylvania, but here we are in a few short minutes polishing off something that affects all of rural Pennsylvania. I believe that perhaps the greatest Governor Pennsylvania ever had, Gifford Pinchot, would turn over in his grave if he could see this action here in the Senate today.

You Know, Mr. President, in York County we have a private independent telephone company known as the York Telephone and Telegraph Company, recently being thoroughly checked by the Public Utility Commission here in Harrisburg as a result of complaints from some of our civic groups down there in York County, and it was carried in the public press that there are thousands upon thousands of people in York County who would like to have telephone service and cannot get it. Now, I think you realize that on the farm we have one of the highest accident rates of any other occupation, and our rates for workmen's compensation, I believe, are second only in the amount of cost to that of mines and mining and quarrying. We do have a high accident rate. We are out in remote areas. We have emergencies, too, and I believe that this measure carries serious implications in believe that this measure carries serious implications in lack of ability of these people in remote areas to get a doctor in case of emergency, to get an ambulance in case of emergency, and I believe that the time has come when the people of the rural areas and the remote areas of Pennsylvania are entitled to the same benefits of our wonderful civilization that most people in our urban areas have.

Mr. President, I want to say that it has been a disappointment to me, a great disappointment, to see that so many of those good gentlemen on the other side of the house who in times past have shown such favorable consideration for people of the rural areas have forgotten them. I might add that it has been a little disappointing to me to see on this side of the house some of my own group forgetting the farmers. I believe it is a bad bill, bad for the rank and file people of the Commonwealth. I believe it is bad for the mothers and prospective mothers in that part of Pennsylvania where they still reproduce not to have telephone service, and I say let us kill this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Request has been made to have the roll verified. The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I voted for this bill because if this Session is any criteria, our present salary will work a hardship upon the Members of the House and the Members of the Senate who have to work for a salary. I know quite a number of the Members of the House who could not afford to come down here in the closing days of this Session. That does not do any good for good and efficient government.

Mr. President, as far as this Legislature is concerned, it does not affect me, because we are not in the category of judges and our emoluments cannot be increased during our term of office. I have another Session to serve, but I feel that the Members of the Senate and the Members of the House are entitled to an adequate income, and that is the only way we are going to administer to good government.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1716, on third reading, entitled:

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE URGING THAT THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION STUDY THE GRAND JURY SYSTEM IN PENNSYLVANIA CONDUCTIVE TO REMEDIAL LEGISLATION

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. STIEFEL and MEADE, offered the following resolution which was read as follows:

In the Senate, December 21, 1951.

Whereas the origins of the grand jury system are rooted in the structure of medieval society and have thus outlived their usefulness, and

Whereas the sluggish criminal procedure required by the grand jury system retard the administration of criminal justice and result in heavy expenditures, and

Whereas the Constitution of Pennsylvania requires indictment for every offense (unless presentment is waived by defendant) and thus places on the judicial system of Pennsylvania an antiquated, onerous and expensive requirement, and

Whereas the scope of the grand jury procedure in Pennsylvania embraces numerous minor offenses thus encumbering the administration of criminal law and inviting laxity in the initial searching stages of magisterial levels preceding the indictment process, and

Whereas in many sister states the scope of the grand-jury procedure has been curtailed by limiting indictments to major offenses only, and

Whereas the antiquated and cumbersome grand-jury system in Pennsylvania is a subject for a long-delayed study and resultant remedial legislation

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania direct the Joint State Government Commission to initiate a study of the grand-jury system in Pennsylvania conducive to presentation of remedial Legislation in the Regular Session of the General Assembly in 1953.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Silvert, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, yesterday after some debate the Loyalty Oath Bill passed the Senate by a vote of 35 to 9, on Concurrence in House Amendments. The position of nine who voted against this bill can be summed up in one sentence; that where you have a bill that is bad in principle, it is not good no matter how many amendments are offered to it or how it is watered down. I am sure we are all thankful that we have a free press in Pennsylvania and a free press in this Country of ours.

Mr. President, I should like at this time to read into the record an editorial which appeared this morning in the Philadelphia Inquirer dealing with this loyalty oath.

"DILUTED OR NOT, PECHAN BILL IS A VICIOUS MEASURE

"On the grounds of confusion alone, the Pechan Bill as passed by the House deserves the Governor's veto. It has been amended so often that few persons can know what is actually in or out of the bill in its present form.

"The sole argument in favor of its adoption left to its supporters is that it has been so watered down by repeated alterations that it ought to be objectionable to nobody at this stage. That is a strange reason for indorsing any proposed legislation.

"Either a law is right in principle, or it is wrong. In the case of the Pechan Bill, the principle of thought control that it would establish is certainly wrong, and dilutions by means of last-minute amendments do not make it right.

"The bill would still require some 277,000 State employes, including 60,000 school teachers, to take an oath of loyalty. The avowed purpose of the oath is to screen subversives out of public office and the schools. But as pro-Communists and other subversives would not scruple to take any oath required of them, this provision becomes meaningless, except as a means of harassing perfectly loyal persons.

"Appointing authorities would be permitted under the bill to conduct whatever investigations they see fit in determining the loyalty of employes. As no standards of loyalty are set up by the proposed statute, the school boards or other appointing officials could set up their own, and use the law as an instrument of persecution and discrimination. Perhaps they would never so use it, but why make it possible?

"Advocates of the bill point out that some of its most objectionable features have been eliminated by amendment. Employes may no longer be discharged on "reasonable doubt," as to their loyalty or on complaints secretly brought. Complaints must be signed, and 'preponderance of evidence' now is required before suspected subversives may be dismissed.

"These are undoubtedly improvements, but they show to what extent supporters of the bill in its original form were ready to go—until public protests stopped them—in forcing State employes to prove themselves innocent of charges of which they would have no knowledge.

"There was never any good reason for a bill of this kind, and watered down or not, it is vicious and un-American, and it ought to be killed off."

SENATE RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE
URGING THAT THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT
COMMISSION BE DIRECTED TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF ESTABLISHING A MEDICAL SCHOOL IN SCRANTON UNDER ADMINISTRATION OF PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McMENAMIN, offered the following resolution which was read as follows:

In the Senate, December 21, 1951.

Whereas, a Resolution dated January 15, 1951, Senate Concurring Resolution No. 107, the Senate of Pennsylvania was requested to authorize the Joint State Government Commission to study the feasibility of establishing Medical and Dental Schools under the administration of Pennsylvania State College, and

Whereas, by Senate Concurring Resolution dated December 11, 1951, Resolution No. 135, the Senate of Pennsylvania was requested to authorize the establishment of a Joint Committee comprised of three Members of the Senate and three Members of the House of Representatives, to study the feasibility of establishing a School of Medicine in Scranton, and

Whereas, it is appropriate that any study made by the Joint State Government Commission for the purpose of deciding on the desirability of establishing the Medical School under the administration of Pennsylvania State College, also examine the desirability of establishing such Medical School in the Scranton area,

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that when the Joint State Government Commission undertakes its study and survey pursuant to Senate Resolution No. 107, it be directed to particularly survey the feasibility of establishing such a Medical School under the administration of Pennsylvania State College in Scranton.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in objecting to the immediate consideration of this resolution, I would like to advise the gentleman from Lackawanna that there already is a resolution which has crossed the desk, a concurrent resolution, setting up a series of studies recommended by the General Assembly to the Joint State Government Commission. Incorporated in that group is the problem of establishing medical schools in Pennsylvania, and I assure the gentleman that the territory covered by his resolution will be seriously considered when the matter is taken up by the Joint State Government Commission.

I, therefore, Mr. President, object to the immediate consideration of this resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE RESOLUTION

ALLEGIANCE TO STEVE O'NEILL, MANAGER OF THE BOSTON RED SOX

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McMENAMIN, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 21, 1951.

Whereas, for the past several years, the outstanding mystery in professional baseball circles has been the inability of the Boston Red Sox's to win the pennant in the American League, in spite of the fact its roster is filled with players of great natural ability, and

Whereas, during the season of 1951 the Boston Red Sox were managed by Steve O'Neill, the distinguished Pennsylvanian and a native son of the storied former Lackawanna Township, otherwise known as Minooka, Lackawanna County, and

Whereas, the management of the Boston American League Club has been fit since the close of the baseball season to replace Steve O'Neill as Manager, in spite of the fact that the said Steve O'Neill is universally acclaimed as a capable and conscientious baseball team Manager.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that this body, after long and serious deliberation does conclude that whatever the reason the Boston Red Sox were unable to win the pennant in the American League, such failure certainly was not in any way attributed to the managerial tactics of Steve O'Neill and this body does hereby render a vote of confidence in a distinguished Pennsylvanian and son of Minooka—Steve O'Neill.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

RULE 21 SUSPENDED FOR REMAINDER OF SESSION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be dispensed with for the remainder of the Session.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES MADE BY SENATOR JOHN J. HALUSKA

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to give a committee report at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, on behalf of the Committee appointed pursuant to Senate Resolution adopted December 4, 1951, to investigate charges made by Senator John J. Haluska of Cambria County, I submit the following report together with the transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing:

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The Committee appointed pursuant to the Senate Resolution adopted December 4, 1951 to investigate charges made by Senator John J. Haluska of Cambria County met on December 11, 1951 in the State Capitol to take testimony.

In addition to Senator Haluska, Senators John H. Dent, M. Harvey Taylor, Anthony J. DiSilvestro, Wm. J. Lane, Samuel G. Neff and Elmer J. Holland gave sworn testimony at the hearing.

It appeared from the evidence that Senator Haluska had publicly stated at a political meeting on October 14, 1951, in Ebensburg Court House that "he had been offered a bribe if he would abandon his opposition to the proposed State income tax."

Senator Haluska further stated at said meeting: "I was offered enough that I would not have to work for the rest of my life if I would withdraw my opposition to this income tax measure."

These statements were reported in the newspapers and thus brought to the attention of the Members of the Senate.

Subsequently, Senator Haluska refused on the Floor of the Senate, to elaborate on the charges but stated he would do so under oath before a properly constituted committee. The aforesaid Resolution was then adopted by the Senate and a Committee appointed to make an immediate investigation of the charges.

The Committee set December 11 as the date of the hearing and gave public notice thereof as well as notice to Senator Haluska.

When the hearing opened Senator Haluska read a prepared statement in which he further charged that (1) One of the greatest deals involving labor was in the making; and (2) that a certain Senator attempted to coerce him into changing his story.

The ten members appointed pursuant to the aforesaid Resolution were present at the hearing and heard the testimony. When Senator John H. Dent and Senator Samuel G. Neff, both of whom were members of the Committee, were named by Senator Haluska as having been involved in his charges they voluntarily withdrew from the committee and since the hearing have taken no part in its deliberation or in the preparation of this Report.

Much of the testimony presented at the hearing dealt with extraneous matters not connected with the purposes for which this Committee was appointed. Such testimony of extraneous matters is not being considered in this Report except to note that there was nothing in it which we felt reflected upon the integrity of any official or required any further investigation.

This Committee seriously considered all the relevant testimony, and have unanimously arrived at the conclusion that Senator Haluska's charges that he was offered a bribe are not true. The Committee is further of the opinion that the evidence presented has vindicated those accused, and established their innocence.

Senator Haluska said that he concluded there was a wrongful connection between the leadership of the Republican and Democratic Party because the Democratic Floor Leader has stated of the Republican President Pro Tempore during a primary election campaign in July that "it was pathetic to see a man who gave so much service to the people of Pennsylvania now being ridiculed." Senator Haluska felt that this was improper because he could recall of no Republican trying to defend Democrats when they were in trouble during the Earle Administration. This illogical connection of events which occurred more than 12 years apart is illustrative of the irrational and illogical reasoning which exists throughout the testimony of Senator Haluska.

The testimony of Senator Haluska was that the day of this speech "Senator Dent told me that if I should go along with the State income tax, that I would receive 50 State jobs under my control without any local sponsorship." This conversation, said Haluska, took place on the Floor of the Senate at his desk.

Senator Haluska did not divulge this alleged offer until the day of the hearing, and apparently made no reference to it to anybody until his political campaign speech in the Ebensburg Court House approximately 3 months after the alleged happening. He did not divulge to the Committee any reason for this delay.

The charge was specifically and emphatically denied by Senator Dent.

It seems fantastic to the Committee that such an offer would be made. After careful consideration of all the testimony the Committee is unanimously of the opinion that no such offer was made.

The evidence indicates that a meeting was held at Hershey Hotel attended by 9 Senators and 3 State officials, representing both political parties and that for over five hours the fiscal problems of the State government and other legislation pending before the Senate was discussed.

Senator Haluska testified that while attending this meeting Senator Dent, in an effort to get him to vote for the income tax said that "tomorrow morning he (Senator Haluska) would be sent a check for $700" for insurance; that he wanted to talk to Senator Taylor about it, but that Senator Dent said, "Johnny, he won't talk to you; you let me handle this boy," and that subsequently Senator Dent said to him that he was wrong "that check is $750."

Senator Dent testified that no such conversation took place and that he at no time offered Senator Haluska any insurance or jobs, and that at no time was he authorized by anyone connected with the Administration or the Republican Party to offer him, or any other person, insurance or jobs.

Senator Taylor testified that at no time did he offer any jobs or insurance to Senator Dent or authorize him to offer Senator Haluska or any other person any insurance or any jobs. Although Senator Haluska says when Dent came to talk to him he interrupted his conversation with another senator, he was nevertheless unable to call a single corroborating witness to this conversation or to the allegation that Dent and he were standing together talking where they could not be heard by others.

At the hearing while examining Senator Dent, Senator Haluska placed this conversation as having been after dinner, while elsewhere in his testimony he placed it before dinner.

Senator Haluska testified that at this meeting he asked what personal consideration would be shown to Democrats who supported the income tax bill. A number of others present testified that he said, "What is in it for me?"

Thus, in the one point where he might have been corroborated, the witnesses, both Republicans and Democrats who testified on the point, all stated that Haluska's testimony as to what he said was false.

Senator Haluska admitted having made the statement in the Ebensburg Court House speech that he was offered enough that he would not have to work the rest of his life if he would withdraw his opposition to the income tax measure. He said at the hearing that what he referred to in this remark was the insurance and the 50 jobs.

The only way he could receive anything for himself as the result of being able to sponsor 50 people for State jobs would be to make these employees pay him for obtaining their jobs and keeping them on during the three remaining years of the Administration. This he referred to as "job insurance."

He also assumed that they would all give him their personal insurance, and that this along with the insurance he could get from the State, would make it unnecessary for him to "work the rest of his life."

It is, of course, foolish to suggest that even by such reprehensible conduct and the small amount of insurance involved it would be possible to accumulate a sum that would even approach enough to keep a person for the rest of his life. His statement demonstrates the ridiculousness of his charges and the recklessness of his accusations.

It is difficult for the Committee to reconcile the testimony of Senator Haluska made before it, and the speech made by him a few days prior thereto on the Floor of the Senate. The newspapers in discussing this case had suggested that Senator Dent might be mentioned by Haluska in connection with his charges. In attacking the newspapers on the Senate Floor Senator Haluska said that the newspapers were going out and accusing innocent people, thus leaving the inference that Senator Dent was not involved in his charges.

Senator Haluska's testimony is filled with references to rumors which he himself admits are not supported by any evidence. We see no need to discuss these rumors.

There is no question that labor legislation, as well as fiscal problems, were discussed at the Hershey meeting, but there is nothing in the evidence to substantiate Senator Haluska's charges that there was "a deal" made or attempted. This Committee finds from the testimony that no deal was made or intended and that the discussions were carried on with the purpose of considering pending legislation and bringing the lengthy session to a close.

The meeting at Hershey and the meetings held by certain Democratic Senators with labor leaders were convened with the full knowledge of the leaders of both parties. The Democratic Senators attending these meetings made a full report of them to the Senate Democratic caucus.

Senator Haluska's accusation that Senator Neff attempted to have him change his story is uncorroborated and specifically denied. In no part of his story was there any corroboration.

The Committee is unanimous in its opinion that Senator Neff did not attempt to get Senator Haluska to testify to other than the truth.

Summarizing: the Committee unanimously finds that

(a) the testimony of Senator Haluska that he was offered a bribe is uncorroborated, incredible, inconsistent and in some instances ridiculous.

(b) he was not offered any insurance, jobs or any other thing to vote for any legis'ation.

(c) Senator Haluska specifically absolved the Administration of any connection with his charges.

(d) the accusation that a Senator asked him to testify falsely is not true.

(e) there was no improper action in reference to labor legislation.

It is unfortunate that we cannot undo the harm already done by Senator Haluska through his reckless allegations which received statewide publication.

Senator Haluska told the Committee at the conclusion of the hearing that he had no other witnesses and that having told his complete story he had nothing else to say.

After careful consideration of all of the evidence we find no matters deserving further investigation.

Respectfully submitted this twenty-first day of December, A. D. 1951.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, first of all I request that I be given a copy of the transcript which was presented to the committee on this problem so that I may have it for my files and have the opportunity to check it and re-check it in the days after the Session is over.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair directs the request to the Chairman of the Committee. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, on this eve of Christmas, I like all of us, trust that I can make my remarks without any bitterness, but I do want the opportunity to clarify my position.

Mr. President, I find no fault with the committee. They acted as they thought fit, certainly not the way I thought they would act. It reminds me of Shakespeare quoting Julius Caesar, when he said, we come here to bury the charges, but not to investigate them, and apparently that is what is taking place today in this report.

Mr. President, certainly I had no witness. At no time did I accuse Governor Fine or the Administration directly of making me an offer, that is true, but the statement I made with reference to the names I mentioned are true. I have no way of proving them. I only told the newspapers that I would mention the names, the places, the dates and the offer. That I have done a public service. At no time did I say I had witnesses or that I was going to prosecute or prosecute. That would be in the hands of the Commonwealth or in the hands of this committee.

Mr. President, the committee passed up literally the labor situation. The transcript should show that I wanted to call as witnesses labor leaders to give their side of the story. They said it was not necessary, so I did not press it. I took it for granted that they realized that a big labor deal was in the making. I could have called various labor leaders and had them tell the committee their story, but it seemed wise for the committee to ignore that and they said that was not necessary.

Mr. President, you know I stood alone for the last several weeks, ignored a great deal by practically all of my colleagues, not so much by the Republican colleagues of mine, but mostly by my Democratic colleagues, but, Mr. President, let me put this into the record. I would rather stand alone and be right than be wrong and be surrounded, and I stood alone and I was right. Righteousness must prevail, the truth will come out and if we are to survive we must follow the truth.

The day will come, I hope, when maybe more may be said about these charges. When I stated that I was asked to change my story, I told the God's truth, and since that time, Mr. President, things have happened that shocked the membership. If need be, I can prove now that certain people have talked to me since my hearing and told me how certain people lied, and not being an attorney, not being up on some of these things, I thought maybe I should set a little trap for some of these conversations. It has been done before in Pennsylvania and I did it. It might be very surprising to some of the Members, in fact all of the Members, to hear a telephone conversation that took place the day after the hearing, mentioning names of men who went down to see my counsel and what they told him. I am not going into that. If the committee sees fit to drop the charges, I am not the prosecuting body. I only made my charges as a public service, and there may be repercussions. There already have been repercussions, and I am not proud of it.

Mr. President, my Democratic colleagues immediately took action to replace me as Whip of that party. That was all right if that was their thought at any time, but, Mr. President, never have I known that such action prevailed within my own Democratic Party. Even the men who were accused under my charges had the opportunity of having a hearing to say their piece. Every man is entitled to his day in court, and my colleagues did not show me the courtesy, but stabbed me in the back. I went to see my daughter at State College, and that was the first caucus I had missed up until that time throughout the entire Session. Without giving me a hearing, regardless of the action taken after the hearing, they stooped to the lowest of low levels by stabbing me in the back and saying, "You are out," not wishing to hear what I had to say, not giving me the opportunity to talk to them after the hearing.

Well, Mr. President, they have had their vengeance. The day will come when it will haunt them and they will bow their heads in shame. I say that I will stand alone but I will stand in the right. They may have consolation by standing in groups and standing wrongly. I am concluding my eighteenth year in Harrisburg and it may be that these are my last words. However, I am running again and I expect to come back, and I shall conduct myself in the same manner of trying to do what I think is right for the people of Pennsylvania. I shall always tell what I know as long as I know that it is true, and what I told this committee was the truth, so help me God. The committee was placed in the position where it was quite difficult, I realize, to definitely decide who was telling the truth and who was not. In one case, according to the report, they took one man's word against the other. However, they deemed it wise to choose me when they said I was asked to change my story. This is a case of two men, no witnesses, but they found fault with me, criticized me and not the man who talked with me. Well, they made their report, they must live with it.

Mr. President, I am going home in a few minutes and I am going home with a clear conscience. I shall enjoy the Christmas Season knowing that I have done something throughout the twelve months that I have been here. If nothing else, Mr. President, I take a lot of credit within my own soul that I played a major part in helping to defeat that vicious income tax which was slated to be imposed upon the people of Pennsylvania, and I feel within my own heart that I played a major part because the bill, I believe, would have passed had it not been for these charges. So, truly and really, there is not bitterness in my heart toward any of my colleagues. I performed a public service and I shall continue, and only wish all of you a Merry Christmas, because I do not carry hatred with me after my job is done.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not intend to get into any discussions here today about anything. A man serves to the best of his ability and does those things that he thinks are right. Every man is entitled to his opinion. Like everything else in this land, there is a law and a Court, and I submitted my position to the Court. The one thing that no man can ever live down is the accusations of another, and regardless of how often you stand up and testify to your innocence, as long as you live there will be accusing fingers pointed your way. That is the only thing in all this that I dislike. The feelings of bitterness are gone. The reasons for these things, only God can fathom, I cannot, but I am plenty satisfied that when my time comes and I have rolled up my last day on this earth, in the words of the poet who wrote these lines, I will know that I am what I am and nothing else. Nothing I say to you, or nothing I can ever say to anybody, will make me any different than what I am.

"When you get what you want in your struggle for self

And the world makes you king for a day,

Just go to a mirror and look at yourself

And see what THAT man has to say.

"For it isn't your father or mother or wife

Who judgment upon you must pass;

The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life

Is the one staring back from the glass.

"Some people may think you a straight-shootin' chum

And call you a wonderful guy,

But the man in the glass says you're only a bum

If you can't look him straight in the eye.

"He's the fellow to please, never mind all the rest,

For he's with you clear up to the end.

And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test

If the man in the glass is your friend.

"You may fool the whole world down the pathway of life

And get pats on your back as you pass.

But your final reward will be heartaches and tears.

If you've cheated the man in the glass."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, this Session has been long and tedious and history will determine whether or not we have legislated for the benefit of the majority of the citizens of this Commonwealth. However, it seems to me that we have been derelict in our duties by not enacting legislation which would control the activities of the legislative engineers who infest the legislative halls here at Harrisburg.

Mr. President, there were quite a number of Bills introduced on this subject; one by Senator Walker and Senator Yoska, and one by Senator Holland and myself. The glaring necessity for this legislation was brought to my attention by the activities of a famous legislative engineer who, I believe, was recently nicknamed the "Chief of the Intelligence Division for the Pennsylvania Railroad." Several days ago I happened to be an eye witness as to the efficiency of this individual when he very cleverly succeeded in defeating the will of the Majority of the Senate and quite a number of the Members of the House of Representatives. As a matter of fact, Mr. President, this information did not come to me second-hand or indirectly, but was direct, and I am very sorry that I cannot name the place, as I must comply with the Rules of the Senate. It seems that we have a rule which prohibits us from mentioning anything which might occur in the other legislative body which is located on Capitol Hill.

The legislation which I am referring to was a safety measure which would have protected the lives of quite a large segment of the railroad employees. I feel that to continue to permit incidents of this kind will cause the populace of this Commonwealth to lose confidence in government. We are elected representatives of the people, under oath to do our duties as we think best and to the dictates of our conscience. However, unfortunately, there are a few members in the legislative halls who are susceptible to pressure and do the bidding of their masters. I notice several of them jump like puppets at the slightest tug from the "Chief of the Intelligence Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad." I say to you, Mr. President, that this is not legislating for the benefit of the people. My reason in making this statement is to call to the attention of the people of Pennsylvania the presence of undue influences which pervade our legislative halls.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I want to make it clear at the outset that this statement will not condemn or condone the legislative engineers about which Senator Lane so ably discoursed a few moments ago. Very frequently we make good friends of them and they bring us information that we might not otherwise have, but I should like to make it clear at the outset that the matter about which I want to talk is that of studying the fiscal affairs of the State of Pennsylvania and a matter that we have talked about a great deal during this Session, and any reference made to the Federal Government is not made in connection with recent disclosures of irregularities in the Federal Government. I do not want to include that at all in my short discussion.

Mr. President, as I said awhile ago, many of us on both sides of the aisle have talked about a study commission and the desirability of having such a commission or committee, not to investigate the State of Pennsylvania or its government or its administration, but to study trends, expenditures and taxes in the State of Pennsylvania to see or get an idea of where we are going.

Mr. President, very frequently in State Government, as Members of the House of Representatives and as Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, we get so close to the tree that we do not see the forest. Now, let us keep in mind at the very outset that back twenty years ago during the so-called depression, the total National income of the people, the corporations, the partnerships and all other concerns, the entire National income of America, reached a low of $39,000,000,000. Last year in January, when the President went before the Congress, he asked for a total budget of $71,600,000,000. Before the Session of Congress adjourned, the budget had reached the height of $83,750,000,000, and if you will just calculate quickly in your minds for a moment, you will realize that that is in excess of $500, yes, it almost reaches $600 for each individual, meaning man, woman and child in America, an expenditure which goes far far beyond anything previous. As a matter of fact, we have all read in recent newspapers that the President of the United States, during his tenure of office, has guided the expenditure of more money than all of the thirty-one preceding Presidents of the United States of America.

Now, Mr. President, in 1947 the Congress of the United States provided for a study commission. Later it was set up under the chairmanship and direction of a former President of the opposing party, former President Hoover, and when I say opposing party, I mean a party of a different belief than the administration in power in Washington. It went to work on a nonpartisan basis, and it came up with many many conclusions and a very voluminous report. I will refer to just a very few items in that report. One of the things they found out in government was that one person out of every seven regularly gets a government check today. Figures released early in this year indicated that 60,594 civilians were added to the Federal pay roll in January of 1951. This committee, or the Hoover Commission, was looking for facts. They found in the twenty years of depression, war, international crisis and cold war, the cost of government had gone from $4,000,000,000 to $42,000,000,000 even before Korea, while the Federal pay roll rose from 600,000 to two and one-half million employees. Such growth inevitably produced overlapping duplication and waste. They found a hodgepodge of boards, bureaus, commissions, agencies and departments, over 1,800 in all, had been created, and that there were no clear-cut lines defining the duties of one against the duties of the other.

Mr. President, the commission further found that the Federal Government spent $10.00 on paper work to execute a simple purchase order, yet half the things they bought cost less than $10.00. The commission further found that your Uncle Sam had $29,000,000,000 worth of property scattered all over the globe with no clear record of what it was or where it was. It found that Uncle Sam operated 2,000,000 automobiles and trucks, but he could not tell where they were or who ran them.

Mr. President, another thing, the Veterans Administration takes four times as long to pay a veteran's insurance claim than does a private insurance company, although it uses five times as much manpower in the process. They also found huge new Federal hospitals being built next door to existing hospitals where there were neither doctors, nurses, nor patients to fill either, and there just let me inject this one thing. When Governor Fine came before the Joint Session of this Legislature, he pointed out that because of our ambitious program during the previous administration, and I am not now debating whether or not that was a good thing or a bad thing, that there were almost one-fourth of the beds in certain hospitals which were vacant or not occupied for the simple reason that we could not get doctors or nurses. That is in the Governor's Message to the Joint Session, I think under the date of March 29. So much for that, and back to the Federal Government.

Mr. President, in Houston, Texas, the government had just allocated $30,000,000 for a new hospital, despite the fact that the Air Force, the Veterans Bureau and the Army and the Navy each had a hospital there at the time and not one of the four existing hospitals were completely occupied. The commission further learned that two rival agencies, the Army Corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation, under the Department of Agriculture, surveyed sites for a dam less than two miles apart on the same river. Each survey cost the taxpayers of the United States a quarter of a million dollars. Yet these two agencies could not agree on the probable cost of the proposed dam. Their estimates were more than $75,000,000 apart, and when a third agency was called in to determine which was the most desirable, they decided, or came to the conclusion after the study, that neither one was desirable, yet the half-million dollars had already been expended for the survey.

Further, Mr. President, there were thirty agencies of the government actively engaged in lending, guaranteeing or insuring loans; thirty-four different agencies were engaged in buying land; thirty-seven in compiling statistics; and twenty-eight in administering welfare plans. Twelve thousand full-time Federal employees were looking after 393,000 Indians, or one employee to each thirty-seven Indians.

Mr. President, the Veterans Administration had twenty-four supervisors for twenty-five employees. Another government agency had a fifty-year supply of light bulbs, and a two hundred forty-seven year supply of loose-leaf binders. The commission's findings showed clearly that one dollar of each seven and one-half dollars of Federal cost was being wasted, and can be saved without curtailing but actually improving government's services to the citizens.

Mr. President, the commission ended its work on June 12, 1949. The current savings, because of action of the Congress of the United States, have been about $3,000,000,000, an amount which will buy 1,500 medium tanks, 1,500 jet fighter planes, 1,500 anti-aircraft guns, 150 heavy bombers, 75 modern submarines and four aircraft carriers. That, Mr. President and my colleagues, gives you a brief gist, a very brief analysis, of what the study commission was able to accomplish for the Federal Government.

Now, Mr. President, I am glad that many Members of the House and the Senate of both political faiths have been interested in a study commission for the State of Pennsylvania. We believe that many similar conditions have crept into State Government, and that by a proper study and with a follow-up with appropriate legislation that much of the taxpayers' money might be saved.

Mr. President, three weeks ago we passed a measure starting in the Senate. We sent it to the House, and there because of petty differences it apparently—I say that advisedly, I am not accusing anyone—was not passed or approved. Instead of that, a bill introduced much before that was amended to conform with the bill passed by the Senate, and it was passed and brought here too late to be given proper consideration, but there is some daylight in the situation. When I say that the situation is a crucial one, I would like to read for the benefit of my colleagues part of the resolution introduced by Senator Snowden, Senator Diehm and myself:

"The Pennsylvania budget has increased from $570,000,000 in the 1939-41 biennium to total expenditures during the biennium just ended of $1,313,864,122.05; exclusive of $440,000,000 paid out in bonus to Veterans of World War II."

In addition to that, Mr. President, this resolution was prepared and introduced in the middle of the year, July 30.

The introduction at the present session of the General Assembly of 138 appropriation bills in the Senate for a total of $161,182,161.73, and of 119 appropriation bills in the House for a total of $798,147,003.50, including $624,115,405.50 in the General Appropriation Bill, indicates no sign of an economy drive, but rather an anxiety on the part of Members of the General Assembly to obtain State funds for institutions and other projects in their own districts in which they hold a particular interest and in which they see at first hand, matters of primary importance."

There is a great deal of other information, Mr. President, in that resolution, and I suggest to the Members that they study it, but the information that I particularly want to bring to the Members today is the fact that in the Conference Report on House Bill No. 1421, because of the insistence of our Chief Executive and his desire to have an impartial, complete and thorough study of the trends, the expenditures and the taxes involved in State Government, on page 5 the committee has recommended an appropriation of $100,000 for the purpose of this study. Now, when this Conference Report comes before you, I sincerely hope that you will approve that particular item. I think it is a distinct step forward for the State of Pennsylvania. Personally, I would have liked to have seen the study made by a commission entirely independent from the Administration, but we realize, too, that things cannot always be done the way we would like them, and I am sure that the Governor, after his complete survey of the situation, is going to appoint a commission that will bring to this Senate and to the House of Representatives a very complete study and a wealth of information, very necessary to each and every Member of the Legislature.

EXECUTIVE NOMINATION TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I call from the table the nomination of Milo Frederick Draemel, for appointment as Secretary of Forests and Waters.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The nomination was read as follows:

SECRETARY OF FORESTS AND WATERS

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

Milo Frederick Draemel, Wynnewood, Montgomery County, for appointment as Secretary of Forests and Waters, to serve until the third Tuesday of January, 1955, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

JOHN S. FINE.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATION

Mr. WATSON, asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nomination read by the Clerk.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. TAYLOR,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, on the nomination of Milo F. Draemel for Secretary of Forests and Waters, I wish to state for the record my reason for my vote.

Mr. President, I intend to vote for his confirmation for the reason that I have always believed that the Governor is entitled to have in his Cabinet anyone he sees fit to appoint, and that the Members of the Senate have no right to oppose such nomination if the nominee is morally fit and qualified to hold the office. However, I have received numerous petitions from Huntingdon County, which is one of the counties in my Senatorial District, calling upon me to not vote for his confirmation. I believe their grievances are real, but I do believe that I can best aid them in solving these matters by voting for the confirmation of Admiral Draemel as Secretary of Forests and Waters.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have no desire to embarrass any Member of this Senate, but under our Rules if a Senator is present during a roll call he must vote.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I am voting "no" because it is my belief that the man is not qualified.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, being forced to vote, I will vote "aye."

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not want to seem facetious, but I do not think the point is well taken. I think that the Rules say on the final vote on a bill that the "yeas" and "nays" must be taken by the Chair, but I do not think this applies to the question of confirmation.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The ruling of the Chair is that a Senator must vote if present.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, on confirmations?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Yes, on confirmations.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, being compelled to vote, since the Governor, I understand, wants him, and he is entitled to name his own official family, I will vote "aye."

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Berger,	Kephart,	Probert,	Wade,
Blass,	Kessler,	Rosenfeld,	Wagner,
Byrne,	Lane,	Ruth,	Walker,
Chapman,	Mallery,	Silvert,	Watson,
Diehm,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,	Wood,
Fleming,	Meade,	Taylor,	Yosko,
Freed,	Pechan,

NAYS—14

Barr,	Letzler,	Neff,	Wolfe,
Dent,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Hare,
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,	Stevenson,	Presiding Officer
Leader,	McMenamin,	Watkins,

Less than two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act to further amend section thirteen of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 955) entitled as amended "An act to promote public health safety morals and welfare by declaring the necessity of creating public bodies corporate and politic to be known as housing authorities to engage in slum clearance and to undertake projects to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income providing for the organization of such housing authorities defining their powers and duties providing for the exercise of such powers including the acquisition of property by purchase gift or eminent domain the renting and selling of property and including borrowing money issuing bonds and other obligations and giving security therefor prescribing the remedies of obligees of housing authorities authorizing housing authorities to enter into agreements including agreements with the United States the Commonwealth and political subdivisions and municipalities thereof defining the application of zoning sanitary and building laws regulations to projects built or maintained by such housing authorities exempting the property and securities of such housing authorities from taxation and imposing duties and conferring powers upon the State Planning Board and certain other State officers and departments" by providing that rentals to persons dependent upon veterans' benefits or public assistants or similar income payments from government agencies shall not be more than that charged to other families of comparable size and income

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I only want to take a couple minutes to make a statement regarding House Bill No. 1638. This bill was prepared, as I understand, by the Department of Public Assistance in the hope that it could reduce departmental relief costs by drastically reducing rents which the Department of Public Assistance recipients are now paying housing authorities throughout the State. If this end result were to be actually achieved we would have no valid criticism to offer, but it cannot be achieved, and there are some very definite reasons why it cannot.

Mr. President, a housing authority draws its funds from two sources—rents and Federal subsidy. The subsidy is very definitely limited and is used basically to amortize the mortgage that is held by private banking interests. Therefore, in order to operate within the limits of this subsidy, housing authorities in preparing their budgets are forced to house a cross-section of the low of income. Currently, housing authorities in Pennsylvania are charging relief recipients rents worked out at the conference table between staff members of Local Housing Authorities and Assistance Boards, and approved by the respective boards. These rents are substantially below ceiling rents permitted by the Department of Public Assistance. This policy has enabled housing authorities to increase substantially the number of relief recipients it could house.

Mr. President, House Bill No. 1638 will drastically reduce the amount of rent that relief recipients will be permitted to pay because it will place them in the lowest category of the low of income. Therefore, if this measure becomes a law the Department of Public Assistance will not save one red cent over the long haul, but instead will find it a most costly venture—and for the following reason:

Every Housing Authority in the State, in a desperate attempt to operate within the legal limits of its subsidy, will be forced to limit sharply the proportion of lowest income families who apply for shelter. This will include, perforce, those receiving public assistance.

Mr. President, this most important fact was brought to the attention of the Department of Public Assistance's top staff, but surprisingly enough the Department of Public Assistance expresses the opinion that it is not concerned with the quality of the housing accommodations which relief recipients can obtain, notwithstanding that the less we house the higher the Department's rental bill.

Mr. President, I ask all of you on both sides of the aisle to vote this bill down.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I only want to take two minutes or so, but I just want to state that one of the main reasons for my opposition to this bill was because the amendments that we tried to offer for the bill were defeated. This bill, if it were properly amended, would have corrected a very sad situation in the State of Pennsylvania. We have in this Commonwealth over a half million persons who belong to the colored race. There is no way that these individuals can belong to a country club today, because the country clubs will not take them in as members since country clubs are not only for recreational but social functions. Consequently, we deny them the right to belong, and with our present quota law, with the clubs added in, there is no opportunity there for this group to enjoy that particular phase of life.

Mr. President, I think that the day is coming when we must recognize this particular problem. This is not only a social but a physical problem, and one we ought to admit and face squarely. I think since the next Legislature will convene in 1953, just a year from now, it ought to be put on notice that something should be done for this group of people.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RIGBY. I am going to object to this particular bill on the matter of reapportionment. I am one hundred percent for reapportionment, but I want to voice my objections to the way this bill has been written and what it has done to Allegheny County. In my particular district, we have been robbed.

I feel myself in a position where I have to vote for a bad bill as far as Allegheny County is concerned. I am going to vote "aye."

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. GRAYBILL filed the following reasons for his vote. My reasons for voting for Senate Bill No. 871 in its final form are as follows:

By many communications and telephone calls from my County leaders and constituents, I know they would plead unanimously to retain our present Congressional District.

However, as the only voting member representing this dissenting thought in our County, I definitely feel that in order to prevent further delay or have our Congressmen in Pennsylvania elected at Large, I elected to vote in favor of this Bill in its final form which would place us in a new Congressional District.

Mr. TOOMEY filed the following reasons for his vote.

My reasons for voting for Senate Bill No. 871 in its final form are as follows:

By many communications and telephone calls from my County leaders and constituents, I know they would plead unanimously to retain our present Congressional District.

However, as the only voting member representing this dissenting thought in our County, I definitely feel that in order to prevent further delay or have our Congressmen in Pennsylvania elected at Large, I elected to vote in favor of this Bill in its final form which would place us in a new Congressional District.

Mr. REIDENBACH filed the following reasons for his vote.

Speaking on behalf of the Lackawanna County Democratic Delegation in the House of Representatives, I want to state that we are satisfied that this group has carried out the congressional mandate of reapportionment of Congressional Districts and is about to pass legislation to that effect. The Lackawanna Democrats have always felt that the oath of office taken by each of us meant that we should carry out the duties imposed upon us by the Constitution.

Because of the unusual situation in that the State of Pennsylvania has to give up three seats in Congress, the problem of re-districting has been extremely difficult.

One of the districts most seriously effected is the old Tenth District, which formerly was composed of Lackawanna County alone. This Bill adds five counties to the Lackawanna County District. Lackawanna County, the youngest in the State, has always taken great pride in the fact that it had its own Representatives in Congress. This era is about to come to an end.

Because we have always believed in being fair, we realize that since we have lost population in Lackawanna County, it will be necessary to add other counties to our district. However, we are firm in our belief that Scranton and Lackawanna County will enjoy new prosperity and we will, in time, regain the population necessary for one Congressional District.

We are happy that the counties which are to be joined in our Congressional District are Wayne, Pike, Susquehanna, Wyoming and Sullivan. From an economic standpoint Lackawanna County is primarily industrial and mining in nature. The additional five counties are primarily agricultural in character. We believe that this is a happy blend of interests. It will make for a comprehensive and well-rounded cross section of the economic structure of America in this Congressional District.

We are satisfied also because the people in the additional five counties are very much like the people in Lackawanna County in character. As neighbors for many years, we know the people of Wayne, Pike, Susquehanna, Wyoming and Sullivan Counties to be thrifty, industrious, God-fearing and firm in their love for the best principles of Americanism.

The Lackawanna County Democratic Organization pledges itself to work with the people of these five counties toward the selection of able, high type candidates for the Congress of the United States. In this trying period in our History, America needs the best possible Representatives in Congress. We are willing and anxious to cooperate with the people in all of the counties in the new district to insure the election of a Congressional Candidate who will at once devote his full interests to the welfare of our country and to the development of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The provisions of this act shall become effective the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. REAGAN. I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. REAGAN. Is it not necessary in any appropriation which is placed before this House in this way, say of an amendment to an appropriation bill which has come through in the regular manner, and the amendments increase the appropriation, is it not necessary to refer that to the Appropriations Committee?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman it is the opinion of the Chair that the House as a whole having acted upon the amendments it is not necessary for Committee action.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, does not the Constitution require that?

The SPEAKER. It is not the opinion of the Chair that the Constitution requires that an amendment acted upon by the entire House must be acted upon by any Committee of the House.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that that is not in accordance with the way the Constitution, and the way the Rules read.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman the Chair will read the two sections of the Constitution, Section 2 and Section 4 of Article III germane to the matter about which the gentleman inquires.

Section 2. No bill shall be considered unless referred to a committee, returned therefrom and printed for the use of the Members.

This provision has been complied with.

Section 4. Every bill shall be read at length on three different days in each House. All amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the Members before the final vote is taken on the bill, and no bill shall become a law unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the persons voting for and against the same be entered on the Journal, and the majority of the Members elected to each House be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

It is the opinion of the Chair that these provisions of the Constitution, the only ones applicable, have been complied with and will be complied with.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I feel that everything has been said on this matter that it is necessary to say, although I would like to say this: I have never seen a House yield to pressure politics as it has in this session. Where is our government going to come to if we continue to do these things?

Each year I come down here and pressure is brought on us by certain bodies of important people or organizations, and they threaten us, or just because of their standing or supposed power we vote against our best judgment in the hope that they will assist us in the next election. I think that is entirely fallacious.

I have been objecting to a great many bills which I consider pressure bills. So far as I can see my county likes that. At any rate I can assure you that so far as my county is concerned I will receive, if I run again, a thousand more votes if I oppose this bill than if I vote for it.

Each year the expenditures go higher and higher just because of this yielding to pressure. It certainly is not conducive toward good government, and eventually it can have no other effect than to destroy representative government throughout this country.

Every time I go back home they talk of the taxes we are imposing. I am buttonholed on the street and asked sometimes pleadingly and at other times threateningly to relieve those people back home from further taxation. I do not know anything better in the world for a man wishing to return to this body than to oppose what the people all know are the efforts of a pressure group.

This bill we have before us is going to require additional taxation. We do not know where we stand. The amount is uncertain. I have heard any number of figures given; no one was positive about them. But I think you will find that in the end the total will be at least $800,000.

I am thinking of the fact that we cut our appropriations for relief by millions; that we contemplate in legislation passed, or by action of the Department of Public Assistance, to make a further cut.

I do not know how you feel about it, gentlemen. I do know this: when I return home there is not a week goes by but what two or three people whom I know come to me and tell me they cannot live on the amount they receive from Public Assistance, and knowing what they are getting, I quite agree with them.

The only thing I can say is "Well, the appropriation was cut". Who deserves assistance more than old people who no longer can work, are past the time when they can get employment. Yet we cut them down to a mere existence and scarcely that.

Here we come to an appropriation for men who are receiving a great deal more than the average man makes, together with the honor which goes with the office of Judge. We are raising them to what might be considered an unprecedented degree and we satisfy our conscience when we do that.

There are many, many instances I might bring to your attention along this line, but I would only worry you. This whole matter has become extremely complex. This parliamentary snarl that we are in over this bill is extremely complex. I fail to understand it.

The amendments which we have before us were supposed to come from this side of the House. All of a sudden our adversaries come forth with great gusto and put it in as their bill. I understand one of the Members here in the House met some prominent Democrats out in the hall, soliciting his vote for these amendments. The member inquired "why"?

"Well," they said "we already have Allegheny, when there are lots of judges and we already have Philadelphia, where there are more. We virtually control the big cities. A great majority of judges are on our side or will be, why of course we are for it." You cannot blame them.

I have also been told if I called for a slow roll and verification after that, the Leader on the other side will insist upon a poll of the House. That will be his fault if he does.

That is pretty nearly pressure politics to get through a bill which a great many do not approve of, and which I feel confident the rural sections do not approve of. If the gentleman wants to do that, of course it is his privilege. But we have the right, Mr. Speaker, to voice our minds and not be threatened.

None of us want to see Members who have gone home called back, but if it is necessary why allow a threat. Particularly the gentlemen on this side, why allow a threat to change your ideas just so we can go home, and because it will require some of the Members to come back.

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman Mr. Reagan, has covered the ground very thoroughly and it is my intention to go along with what he has offered to the House.

I may restate this. The Members of both sides of the House know that last March I and another Republican Member of the House asked for an additional Judge in our county. The Democratic opposition, Mr. Hiram Andrews, of Cambria County, opposed my view very, very much.

The reasons, I do not know, but I do know this: we needed a judge. Sincerely I asked for a judge. On the other hand, I do not know unless it is a change of heart on the part of Mr. Andrews why at this time he brings in that my county has 150,000 and needs an increase in salary. I want to know what the change of heart is there.

The only thing, Mr. Speaker, I know is that several of his gypsy judges from Cambria county sit in our Blair county courts. That is the reason we wanted another judge, when there were 290 days in the last two years that visiting judges sat in our county. Don't you think we need another judge? That is my argument today.

As far as this bill is concerned I am opposed to it, because I do not know where we are going. Your cannot go to a funeral home to look at a respectable citizen laying in his coffin, unless there is an argument from people in my county about what we are doing in Harrisburg—spending, spending.

Just yesterday morning I came in to take the train to Harrisburg. There sat two respectable old men on the seat. I do not know who they were; they named the three representatives from Blair County, also our state Senator.

This is what they said: "As far as Blair County representation is concerned we need a change. The only thing in Pennsylvania is they earn the money and the federal government and the state government gives a check and takes out what they please. In Russia they give you what you are to have, and you do not have to file any income tax.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I rather resent the remarks made by the gentleman from Union. Mr. Reagan insinuated that those who vote for this bill are voting under pressure.

I want it distinctly understood that I am not pressured by any group on this bill. I am not in Mr. Reagan's position. He said if he votes against the bill he will get a thousand more votes in Union County than he would if he voted for it. I am not in that position. I do not know whether I will get more votes or less votes. There is a pressure group from Union and he admitted it. I am voting for the bill on general principles, and if I never come back here as a result of it, that will be all right with me.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state for the information of the House that I am led to believe that this bill will wind up in a Conference Committee in which the differences between the House and Senate will be adjusted by a committee representing both Houses.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. I would like to have an explanation of this bill, what the purpose of it is, and what it does.

Mr. WACCHAUS. Mr. Speaker, I would be happy to give an explanation of Senate Bill 431 in the absence of Mr. Haudenschild, if he is not present.

Several months ago, we passed House Bill 470 doing almost exactly the same thing that Senate Bill 431 does. There are a few little differences, however. Senate Bill 431 seems to be more acceptable and more in line with the thinking of the folks over at the Department of Public Assistance, and for that reason 470, when it reached the Senate was kept in Committee there and Senate Bill 431 started through the Senate and reached us just a few days ago.

This bill provides for an increase of pension for the blind from $40 to $50, and increases the ceiling with comparable same amounts of $120 a year, making the ceiling now $1716 instead of $1596.

One other provision which was not included in the Blind Pension Act before is it combines real property and personal property to the amount of $5,000 where it previously had a real estate clause of only $5,000. This is a combination of both real and personal property now.

The bill in its present form from the Senate is acceptable to blind who are happy to have been recognized to the extent of an increase in pension. It will make more than 15,000 blind persons throughout the Commonwealth tremendously happy. We appreciate all that has been done for the blind and shall continue to be appreciative in the future.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like someone to give me a little intelligence as to what this bill does and what good it does.

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the question from Mr. Swartz, the intent of the bill is that the delegates-at-large in both political parties and the alternate delegates-at-large by their party rules, the two political parties will be allowed to elect them or nominate or appoint them in a meeting of the State Committee of both parties.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, at the present time the people select these by popular vote, is that right?

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Speaker, that is right.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, in other words it would transfer the right of the selection of those delegates into the hands of the State Committee?

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Speaker, that is right.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for the information.

I want to be recorded as voting against this bill. I do not like the way we select our presidents now, and I do not think this is any improvement on our present system.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

INVESTIGATION OF JUVENILE COMIC BOOKS

Mr. MORAN offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for it to be read for the information of the House.

The resolution was read for information as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 21, 1951.

The comic book available on the newsstand and at the magazine counter, designed primarily for juvenile consumption and purchased largely by its intended market, is a comparatively recent venture in the publishing world.

While many comic books provide wholesale reading for children and while the contents of many others are harmless, there is a type of publication masquerading as a "comic" book, the subject matter of which is lurid, gruesome, fear-inspiring, and morbid, to say the least.

This type of "comic" book purports to be published subject to the publishers' self-imposed code of decency. If these standards, as exemplified by the type of publication put on the market week after week, are the best publishers can arrive at, it is incumbent upon the legislature to investigate the need for establishing standards of decency adequate to protect the impressionable minds of our children; now therefore be it

Resolved (by the House of Representatives), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study of comic books, available for sale to children in this Commonwealth and to investigate their contents, particularly with reference to the gruesome, morbid type hereinbefore referred to. After completing such study it shall make such recommendations as it deems necessary with respect to the establishment of standards commensurate with the proper education and protection of the impressionable minds of our children, together with accompanying drafts of necessary legislation, and submit its report thereon to the General Assembly at its next regular session.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MORAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to have his remarks extended on the records as follows:

Mr. Speaker, browsing through a magazine stand this week, I was jarred by the gruesome cover on a comic book. The contents of this colored pulp story book were so shocking I felt I had to tell you about it.

Your children can buy a nightmare for a dime. Terror for tots is big business. The Frankensteins who produce this stuff that bad dreams are made of blossoms opulent on the intense curiosity and deep impressionability of the young. Tales from Twain are passe. Tales from the Crypt are sell-outs. The recipe is simple. Take the hollow face of a zombie and mix well with ghouls, shrunk heads and decomposed bodies. The bigger the portion—the better the dish.

The April-May cover of "Tales from the Crypt" features a rather shabby coffin-filled vault. A young man wearing an expression of violent dread is shown clawnig at the steel door while watching a partly decomposed body draped in tattered clothing rise up from one of the wooden boxes. His nose is rotted off, eyes eaten out, part of an ear is gone, his skin hangs casually over rotted teeth yet somehow he manages to leer at the reader. By way of explanation the terrified youth at the crypt door is fed this line "Locked . . . I'm locked in this Mausoleum with . . . with this THING!" Comic? Let's turn the page.

This is the mood page to prepare you for your adventure in horror. It is clobbered with comic characters . . . a clumsily wrapped mummy, a cute, green monster with one eye and two pointed teeth, a wild-eyed ape, a few formless ghosts, a shriveled head, a dozen bats hanging head downward apparently bored with it all, and your hostess, the Crypt Keeper definitely not the twin with the toni. She speaks, "Welcome, dear fiends; Come into the Crypt of terror. I see it is time to tell you another of my spine-tingling horror stories. This one is sure to freeze the blood in your veins . . . Guaranteed to make shivers run up and down your crawling spine. This adventure into terror . . . this chilling ordeal is about to happen to YOU. YOU are the main character. Get a good grip on yourself."

The first story titled "Reflection of Death" talks directly and personally to the wide-eyed juvenile devotees. You are driving down the highway with a friend. There is an accident. You awaken and find yourself lying at the edge of a road. There is no sign of a wreck . . . just road reaching into night. A car passes . . . you put your hand up to stop it . . . step up to the driver and see a look of stark terror in his eyes. He shrieks and drives away. You pass a hobo huddled near a fire. He smiles and invites you to some stew. You move into the firelight, the blood drains from his face . . . he runs screaming into the night. You come across a paper dated two months from the accident. It's impossible you think. You were driving home from a New Year's Eve party. It can't be the 26th of February. You reach your home. It is boarded up. You go to your friend's house who was with you when the accident happened. You tell him your story . . . how people screamed when they saw you but he had not. He is blind. He doesn't believe you . . . says you were killed . . . horribly mangled . . . You are dead . . . you stagger towards a mirror . . . you see a face almost completely rotted away. To quote again from this pretty prose, "you scream. You open your rotted, torn, decomposed mouth and scream." The story continues through two additional pages of nauseous nightmares and once again your drooling hostess rises to greet you. "Like being a corpse, kiddies. Well, you might as well get used to it. It's bound to happen. Maybe you'll know it's coming by having a dream like the one in this story. If you do, you'll have something to look forward to."

The fascinated little readers are then turned over to The Old Witch for a terrifying tale which she calls "Last Respects." Briefly, this is the story of an heiress and her chauffeur. They are secretly married. Her scrooge uncle whom she lives with discovers her secret while she is delirious with pneumonia. He refuses to let her husband see her. She dies and is taken to a vault where her chauffeur husband comes to pay his last respects and to mutter over her casket that he has killed her uncle. A storm comes up and blocks the door to the vault shut. He's trapped in the mausoleum. Days . . . then weeks pass. His knocking and shouting grows weaker. A month later the door is opened by an attendant who finds him recently dead. The coffin had been pried open. Bones are scattered on the floor. He had stayed alive for almost a month by catching water in an urn and eating his wife. He had died of embalming fluid poisoning. "They took him away. They put the white picked-clean bones back into the coffin and sealed it up again." This witch fades out with this bit of comment. "It was a meaty little tale, wasn't it? They all killed each other so to speak. I hope you didn't . . . er . . . choke up at the sad ending. If your stomach's doing flip-flops, I'll turn you back to the crypt keeper. He has another tale for you to chew on."

This comic book is published by Educational Comic's Inc., New York city. A small seal on the upper left-hand corner of the cover stamps it as "an entertaining comic." The seal on the right is marked "conforms to the comics code. Authorized by A.C.M.P." The inside cover asks the reader to look for this seal. "This seal is used by the Association of Comics Magazines Publishers which believes in decency and good taste." They continue by stating they believe in self regulation. They say if you want the best comic magazines, always look for the seal because it is your guarantee of quality and entertainment. "Only the best comics carry the seal."

"The Association is constantly working to give you better entertainment and more information about the world we live in. It works with Parent-Teacher Associations, educational groups, women's clubs, religious organizations of very faith. Show this advertisement to your parents so they too will understand what the better comic magazines publishers are doing to raise standards."

What are they doing if they continue to publish these morbid tales? What are we doing to stop them? Your children are the victims of this terror form of comic lurking behind a code of "decency" and "good taste."

Ten cents is too big a price for your children to pay for frightful dreams, extreme fear, nervous disorders. Your state legislature has the power to ban these dime monsters. You have the power to make them.

The publishers of these fright funnies are getting away with murder—the cold blooded premeditated murder of a child's peace of mind.

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the provisions of House Rule 31, the Chairmen of the Standing Committees of the House are required to file with the Chief Clerk, all committee records. The Chairmen are directed at their earliest convenience to comply with the provisions of this rule.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to present to be extended on the record the remarks of Dr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Without objection, they will be extended on the record.

Extension of remarks of George J. Sarraf, with approval of Paul F. Jones, Theodore H. Schmidt, J. P. Moran and B. Frank Hunter

During the House Debate on House Bill 1644, some uncomplimentary remarks were made about Supreme Court Justice-Elect Michael A. Musmanno who fathered the bill. The remarks were not replied to at the time because it was properly believed that personalities should have no place in the debate in order that thorough, honest consideration could be given to the merits or demerits of the bill itself. The bill eventually passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 145 to 8, it then passed the Senate with amendments by a vote of 46 to 0, and it repassed the House, concurring with the Senate Amendments by a vote of 206 to 0.

Now that the bill has passed both Houses and was this evening signed by the Governor, these remarks are being spread upon the record so that the world will know of the high esteem in which Judge Musmanno is held by all those who truly know him as a patriot, soldier, jurist, author and legislator. Judge Musmanno served in the House of Representatives in the 1929 and 1931 sessions with distinction and credit not only to his own constituency but to the entire State of Pennsylvania. He was elected to the County Court of Allegheny, to the Court of Common Pleas and just recently to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He has thus already served as a judge for twenty years.

In World War I, although below the draft age, he volunteered for the United States Army; and in World War II, although beyond the draft age, he volunteered for the United States Navy. During World War II, he was twice wounded in action, and received the Decorations of Purple Heart, Bronze Star for Valor and Legion of Merit.

He was then appointed by the President of the United States to the International War Crimes Tribunal in Nuremberg where he helped to write the international law which today governs war crime responsibility. He also served as Military Governor in war devastated areas.

Following the war, Judge Musmanno wrote the book TEN DAYS TO DIE, which is the authoritative account on the death of Adolf Hitler. He is the author also of six other books, one of which was made into the movie BLACK FURY. One of his works, on the Constitution of the United States, was adopted by Congress as a national document and circulated in libraries and colleges throughout the land.

Twenty-five years ago Judge Musmanno recognized the menace and threat of Communism to our institutions of freedom. At American Legion conventions, on the platform and in lecture halls he called upon national and state legislatures to outlaw the Communist Party which he saw not as a political party but as a criminal conspiracy against the United States. During the intervening one-quarter of a century Judge Musmanno has never abated his drive against Communism and Communists. This summer he came to Harrisburg and enlisted support from both parties in behalf of the bill which he wrote and which later became House Bill 1644. It was sponsored in the House by Representatives Tompkins, Ziegler and Mazza of the Republican Party and Representatives Sarraf, Paul Jones and Schmidt of the Democratic Party. He made numerous trips to Harrisburg in connection with this bill, conferring with House and Senate leaders and with the Governor and Attorney General of the Commonwealth. The bill has now become law and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be a better state to live in, because of this legislation.

We know that Judge Musmanno enjoys the respect of members on both sides of the House, and we make these remarks in recognition of his proved qualities as a celebrated author, a profound patriot, an able jurist, an experienced legislator and a great American.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. MORAN

RESOLUTION No. 88.

In the House of Representatives, December 21, 1951.

The comic book available on the newstand and at the magazine counter, designed primarily for juvenile consumption and purchased largely by its intended market, is a comparatively recent venture in the publishing world.

While many comic books provide wholesome reading for children and while the contents of many others are harmless, there is a type of publication masquerading as a "comic" book, the subject matter of which is lurid, gruesome, fear-inspiring, and morbid, to say the least.

This type of "comic" book purports to be published subject to the publishers' self-imposed code of decency. If these standards, as exemplified by the type of publication put on the market week after week, are the best publishers can arrive at, it is incumbent upon the legislature to investigate the need for establishing standards of decency adequate to protect the impressionable minds of our children; now therefore be it

Resolved (by the House of Representatives), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a study of comic books, available for sale to children in this Commonwealth and to investigate their contents, particularly with reference to the gruesome, morbid type hereinbefore referred to. After completing such study, it shall make such recommendations as it deems necessary with respect to the establishment of standards commensurate with the proper education and protection of the impressionable minds of our children, together with accompanying drafts of necessary legislation, and submit its report thereon to the General Assembly at its next regular session.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Saturday, December 22, 1951 at 12:01 a. m.

SENATE

SATURDAY, December 22, 1951

The Senate met at 12:30 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

By Appointment of the PRESIDENT pro tempore:
The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, the gentleman from Berks, DOCTOR RUTH, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, as we come to the end of this journey and we look back over the year, we thank Thee for all the things that we have done to help others. Where we have made mistakes, we ask Thy forgiveness and as we go back to our homes in this Yuletide, may we realize that the greatest Gift that has ever come to man was the Gift of Thy Son, our Lord. May that Spirit of the Christ Child be in our hearts, and as the angels sang the Prince of Peace, may we pray and work that that peace among men may soon be established, that everywhere we may recognize one another as brothers, as children of Thine, so that Thou mayest have all the glory and the honor in a world without end, Amen.

SENATE RESOLUTION

URGING FOOTBALL GAMES BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE AND THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Messrs. BARR, NEFF, WALKER, DENT, LEADER, BYRNE, McMENAMIN, HARE, FREED, YOSKO, FLEMING and PECHAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 22, 1951.

Whereas, among the great Universities in Pennsylvania, there are three which annually field strong football teams, namely: University of Pennsylvania, Penn State College and the University of Pittsburgh, and

Whereas, an annual football game between each of these three institutions would be a contest of great statewide interest

Now therefore be it resolved that the Senate of Pennsylvania does adjure the Athletic Directors of these three institutions to so arrange football schedules in the future that each of these schools will annually play the other two.

RESOLUTIONS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY CERTAIN PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES IN STATE-OWNED MEDICAL AND SURGICAL HOSPITALS

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, December 22, 1951.

The Commonwealth maintains and operates 10 elaborate medical and surgical hospitals.

During the present session of the General Assembly approximately $16,000,000 will be appropriated to 181 state-aided nonprofit hospitals throughout the 67 counties of Pennsylvania.

In contrast therewith, at this same session approximately $10,000,000 is being appropriated to the 10 state-owned and operated medical and surgical hospitals.

These 10 state hospitals are located in only 5 of the counties of the state, which reflects the fact that the remaining 62 counties are helping to support, through taxation, these hospitals located in only 5 counties.

The state medical and surgical hospitals are engaged in unfair competition with state-aided nonprofit community hospitals in that their rates are lower than the actual cost of furnishing the services rendered.

Audits made by the Hon. Weldon B. Heyburn's department for the period ending May 31, 1950 indicate irregularities, noncompliance with law, inefficiencies and mismanagement in administration of the state-owned medical and surgical hospitals.

The state medical and surgical hospitals were originally organized to fill the need in caring for underpaid coal mine employees. They have long since outlived the purpose for which they were established, due to economic changes in wages and social services, the availability of Blue Cross, pension plan and other means through which hospital services may now be obtained; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to make a complete and thorough survey of the practices, procedures and policies under which the state-owned medical and surgical hospitals are operated, and to consider the advisability of disposing of these hospitals to the municipalities in which they are located, to be operated by such municipalities as community nonprofit hospitals on the same basis as the state-aided nonprofit community hospitals of the Commonwealth, and be it further

Resolved, That the commission on or before March 1, 1953, make a report of its findings together with its recommendations and drafts of legislation to put the same into effect.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rules 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY CERTAIN PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES IN STATE MENTAL HOSPITALS

In the Senate, December 22, 1951.

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to make a survey of the practice, procedures, and policies under which the State mental hospitals are operated and in particular the methods of treatment and phyco-therapy program employed, the over crowding of accommodations, shortage of doctors and nurses and the method of employing attendants as well as to investigate the background of all attendants now employed, at each of the State mental hospitals; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commission make a report on or before March 1, 1953, of its findings and recommendations together with drafts of legislation to put such recommendations into effect.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McMILLEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, during the heat of the session, and it was hot at times as we all know, there developed a situation and a period in which tempers were strained and dispositions were ruffled. At that time several per-statements and to make clear their positions in reference sons involved on both sides of the House saw fit to make to insinuations which were made about the efforts and the activities of Members on both sides of the House.

I happen to be one of the individuals who at that time felt compelled to answer some of the insinuations. But in reflection and in the spirit of the season, I think I do not want this session to close without offering my sincere apology for anything I may have said which offended anyone on either side of the House. I think we should clear the decks, clear the records and go home in the spirit of Christmas.

Thank you very much and at this time I want to wish all of you here a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, the remarks made by the gentleman from Indiana cause me to wonder whether I have actually been present at all of the sessions of the House; whether there were things said, things done that I did not hear.

I know of no time when tempers were ruffled. I know of no time when there was stress and strain. I have listened attentively and I have heard no unkind words, and certainly I can remember no unseemly insinuations.

I wonder whether the gentleman from Indiana has been living in some cavern of his own creation, and simply imagines that there has been stress and strain, or has thought of something that he did not say and now imagines he said and is apologizing for an incident which never happened?

I return to him his kindly wishes for a joyful, prayerful, thoughtful Christmas.

If there ever was a time when the American people should ponder the meaning of Christmas and think of the value of a non-commercialized Christmas, a Christmas observed in keeping with the traditions of our fathers, that time is now. So, I wish to the gentleman from Indiana and to all the Members a Christmas that knows the peace that can come through meditation concerning the mysteries which the festival of Christmas emphasizes.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, now that my good friend from Indiana, Mr. McMillen, has stated his feelings and in a more solemn note my good friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews has spoken, I think I should say that I am quite a little like the boy who had gotten into a fight and had socked the other guy in the nose.

He was being severely reprimanded by his mother and she said: "Johnny, why did you hit Billy in the nose?"

He said: "Mom, I did not do it on purpose." "What do you mean?" she said.

"No," he said, "I didn't; I swung for his jaw and missed."

POEM BY CHIEF PAGE

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks the consent of the House to call on the Chief Page, Benjamin Foltz, to read a poem written by him. The Chair hears no objection.

The Chair recognizes the Chief Page.

The CHIEF PAGE. Mr. Speaker, I wrote a little poem while I was sitting here not doing anything and I hope the Members will like it. This is the way it goes:

Early Saturday morning as I silently stood
Back of my desk where I always should.

I gazed at the seats where the Members should be,
I then realized what a session we had,
And the bills that were passed whether good or bad.
The session was long and the session was trying
But at least we got out in time for our Christmas buying.
So as we come to a close of this session
I wish to all of you God's Blessings.
And may you have all of the Season's Greetings
And may I see you again in the 1953 meeting.
